Respond to questions 20 – 23 by selecting the correct response for when a child discloses abuse to you:

20. You should _____ the child. Never criticize the child or claim that the child has misunderstood what happened. It is not your responsibility to determine whether the allegation is true. Children seldom lie about abuse.
- Believe
 - Affirm
 - Protect
21. You should _____ the child. Children who have been victimized may feel sad, angry, fearful, anxious, and depressed. Accept and understand the child's feelings. Avoid telling the child how he or she "should feel." Rather, emphasize that the child is not to blame for what happened. Praise him/her for courage and honesty, and promise you will get help.
- Protect
 - Refer
 - Affirm
22. You should _____ the child. Along with another trusted adult member (of the same sex as the child), take the child to a private place. Discuss the situation only with these individuals. Try to avoid repeated interviews about the incident. Never promise that everything will be okay. You can promise that you will do what you can to help.
- Protect
 - Believe
 - Refer
23. You should _____ the child. DO NOT attempt to handle the problem alone. This is important for the well being of the child as well as for your own protection. As a child care custodian, you are mandated by the law to report child abuse.
- Refer
 - Affirm
 - Reassure
24. In the state of Texas, you must be able to determine beyond a shadow of a doubt that the abuse actually occurred before you are required to report it.
- True
 - False

25. If a child discloses abuse to you at church, the three on-site people that need to be notified immediately are:

- a. Student minister
- b. Sunday school teacher
- c. Child's sibling
- d. Child's friend
- e. Pastor
- f. Staff/church leader
